FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A blessed Feast of the Corpus Christi! This weekend, we recall the significance of the Blessed Sacrament. Jesus has gifted us with his Body and Blood which allows us to experience incredible intimacy with our God. Jesus fulfills his promise to us: "I am with you always, even until the end of the age." As Catholics, we give thanks for the real presence of Jesus in the Church and in our lives.

Perhaps you did not know that Swahili-speaking families in Columbus have celebrated a monthly Mass at Saint Peter Church for the past several years. This joy-filled community has practiced their Catholic faith and preserved their traditions in our midst. Now, this group of East Africans has decided to move across town to Saint Elizabeth on Sharon Woods Boulevard. That church is able to offer an earlier Mass time on Sunday afternoons, and the location is more convenient for that community, too. We wish our Swahili-speaking brothers and sisters well as they celebrate their final Mass at Saint Peter this weekend, and we give thanks to God for the ways they have blessed us.

Looking ahead, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on Friday, the first Friday of June. This is a quintessential Catholic devotion. We contemplate the love of the Savior's heart which was pierced by the soldier's lance and became a font of mercy for the entire human race. In our prayer, we surrender ourselves completely to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. And through the sacraments of the Church, we place ourselves at the foot of the cross, allowing the blood and water which flows from that divine heart to cleanse and strengthen us.

Persevere!
Father David Schalk

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Ex 24: 3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us."

Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar.

Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do."

Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 116 (115): 13 · L

Ps 116 (115): 12-13, 15-16bc, 17-18

How shall I make a return to the LORD for all the good he has done for me?
The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people.

SECOND READING

Heb 9: 11-15

Brothers and sisters:
When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

GOSPEL

Mk 14: 12-16, 22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him.

Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there."

The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

PRAYER OF EUCHARISTIC CONSECRATION

Lord Jesus Christ, Bread of Life, True God and True Man, The Alpha and the Omega, Truly present - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity - in the Blessed Sacrament. I consecrate myself to You today without reservation.

Here I am, Lord. I come to do your will. Come and dwell within me. Heal my body, focus my mind, Transform my heart, and nourish my soul. So that I may represent You faithfully in the many situations and circumstances of my daily life.

Lord, Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist, I surrender my whole being to Your care. I surrender my life, my plans, and my very self to You. I place all that I am at Your feet. I place all that I have at your feet. Take what You want to take and give what You want to give.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, Teach my soul how to receive your Son in the Eucharist and how to represent Him in this world. Teach me the surrender and sacrifice that were necessary to make the Eucharist possible in this broken world. Intercede for me and obtain the grace necessary to allow your Son's teachings to penetrate the darkest, coldest, hardest parts of my heart, so that by receiving Him in the Eucharist my heart may become ever more like His Eucharistic Heart.
