God Bless Our Country INDEPENDENCE DAY

The parish staff at St Peter St Joan of Arc wish you all a Happy Fourth of July.

Our parish offices will be closed on Thursday, July 4 and Friday, July 5 to celebrate our nation's independence with our families. We will not have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at either parish, however our confession and Mass times will remain the same.

Volunteer Support and Donations Needed

5 young adult missionaries from Totus Tuus will be visiting our Parish from July 21st-26th. They will be directly serving the youth of our Parish. During the week they will run a fun and faith filled daycamp for the children of the parish. In the evening, they will be running youth activities for our older teens.

As a parishioner could you assist with one of the following things:

- Prepare a meal for our missionaries
- Donate gift cards for meals or supplies
- Volunteer to aide our missionaries during the day camp

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I love the Fourth of July – cookouts, fireworks, and family gatherings! Independence Day is also a wonderful opportunity to give thanks to God for the freedoms and privileges we enjoy in the United States. To be sure, the goodness of our country depends on the goodness of its citizens; therefore, we commit ourselves to living a virtuous and faith-filled life. As we pour ourselves out for the Kingdom of God, we lift up our nation.

On a different note, let me address three critical needs we have in our parish. First, we need volunteers for our festival that will take place in August. For every parishioner, there is a shift to cover, a job to do, or a contribution to make. Our whole community has to come together – Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc – in order to pull off the greatest festival in the Diocese of Columbus.

Second, we need volunteers for our new Family Catechesis Program. This is our parish's most important evangelization effort: we are teaching the next generation of Catholics. If you have a deep faith in God, please share that faith with our young parishioners next school year. There are a lot of opportunities to serve, each with varying degrees of involvement.

Third, we absolutely need to invite individuals to participate in the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (formerly known as the RCIA)). If you know people who want to learn about the Catholic faith or are interested in Catholicism, let them know that the OCIA begins in the fall. Our church grows when we are bold to invite others to explore the beauty of a relationship with Christ in the Church.

Thank you for the ways in which you build up our parish family! I am grateful to serve God alongside you at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc. Enjoy the festivities this week and ask the Lord to watch over the U.S.A.!

SPSJOA VOCATIONS COMMITTEE

Congratulations to Seminarian Michael Rhatican!

The Parish Vocations Committee proudly announces that Seminarian Michael Rhatican was chosen by Bishop Fernandes to continue his formation to the Priesthood in Rome. He recently received his candidacy for Holy Orders from Bishop Fernandes and will pursue a Licentiate in Sacred Theology at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas (Angelicum) for the next 5 years.

Michael graduated from the Pontifical College Josephinum with a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy, graduating Summa Cum Laude on May 11th. We are very proud of Michael and his accomplishments and his faithfulness to our parish. We wish to acknowledge his departure on July 21st as we host a special Donut Sunday. Please join us that Sunday after the 8:00 am & 10:00 am Masses at Saint Joan of Arc (Social Hall) to wish him well and celebrate Michael's continued work in answering God's call.

PARISH UPDATES

Thank you for your patience as we continue to grow together as a combined parish community at St Peter St Joan of Arc (SPSJOA).

Currently, we have two websites for our parish but will soon be changing to one shared website at SPSJOA.org. The new website is not live yet, but we will notify you as soon as it is.

Another change that is coming is our parish and staff emails. Currently, our emails end with either @stjoanofarcpowell.org or @stpetercolumbus.com. Once our emails are all fully set up our new email addresses will end with @spsjoa.org.

Eventually, we will also be kindly requesting that checks be made payable to "St Peter St Joan of Arc." However, for the time being, please continue to make checks payable to "St. Peter" or "St. Joan of Arc."

Amongst the varying changes, we are also in the process of updating our phone system at SPSJOA. Our parish number (614-761-0905) will stay the same, but you might be hearing a new greeting message.

We cannot thank you enough for your patience and flexibility as we navigate these exciting updates to our parish.

FAMILY CATECHESIS

Please note that as of August 1, there will be a $100 late registration fee and that no registrations will be accepted after August 23.

So don't delay in signing up your family for the 2024-2025 Family Catechesis sessions! To register please visit the link below.

VOLUNTEER WITH FAMILY CATECHESIS

It takes a community to help guide our children in their faith.

Volunteers can commit to as little as 5 weeks or up to 20 weeks. We need Catechists and Support Volunteers to assist the +800 children in our Family Catechesis program, and the number of participants keeps increasing. Support Volunteers will help with safety, security, childcare, and attendance.

If you have any questions about the 2024-2025 program or how to register, please contact yffregistration@stjoanofarcpowell.org.

SAINT TERESA'S OUTREACH

Monthly Sandwich Collection

Due to the upcoming holiday, Saint. Teresa's Outreach will be collecting sandwiches before all weekend Masses on July 13th and 14th. Sandwiches are donated to St. Joseph's Cathedral, St. Lawrence Haven at Holy Cross, and Holy Family Soup Kitchen.

Please note it is important to follow this process exactly. Constructing the sandwiches in a different manner than what is listed here will make the sandwiches unusable.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Month Three

To my Spiritual parents, I can squint, swallow, and move my tongue. I now have my own unique set of fingerprints. I breathe amniotic fluid to develop my respiratory system. I get my oxygen I need through the umbilical cord. God is so good to give me life. Thank you so much for praying for my mother and me.

REMEMBERING ST PETER ST JOAN OF ARC: WHAT IS A LEGACY GIFT?

Last month, the SPSJOA Legacy Society was introduced as a unified recognition program of legacy gifts for all parishioners of our new parish, St Peter St Joan of Arc.

Parishioners who provide a legacy gift to the parish and notify the parish of such gifts become members of the Society. But, what is a legacy gift? Simply stated, a legacy gift describes the donor's commitment to transfer a portion of the donor's accumulated wealth to a qualified religious, educational, or charitable organization at the time of the donor's death. For our purpose, this would be a gift to the parish from a parishioner's estate. A legacy gift is generally made by means of a formal instrument which might include a will, trust, insurance policy, retirement plan, gift annuity, or donor-advised fund.

Legacy planning is not a "fundraising" program, but rather it is faith-based in discipleship and stewardship. As we mature in our discipleship, we recognize our mission to pass our faith onto future generations. We do this through evangelization - knowing and understanding our faith well and sharing that faith with others. Just as important, as disciples of Christ, we must recognize and be grateful for all the glorious gifts that have been provided to us during our lifetimes. As grateful disciples, we return a portion of the gifts we have accumulated over our lifetimes to our parish and other charitable organizations. Such important gifts will touch the lives that come after us and build our faith for generations to come.

Wealth is not a requirement for legacy giving. All grateful disciples have some means to share a portion of accumulated assets regardless of their size.

If any parishioner has already provided a gift to either St Peter or St Joan of Arc but the parish has not been notified, please contact Stephanie Grieser, Director of Stewardship so that you can be added to the SPSJOA Legacy Society. Also, contact Stephanie if you would like more information on legacy planning (sgrieser@stjoanofarcpowell.org or by telephone at either campus office).

Mark your calendars for "My Last Wishes Seminar" which will be held on the morning of November 16, 2024, and will include topics of choosing a Catholic cemetery, making funeral arrangements, planning the funeral liturgy, estate planning topics, and legacy planning.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Wis 1: 13-15; 2: 23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of them living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying.

For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 30 (29): 2a · L

I will praise you, Lord, for you have res - cued me.

Ps 30 (29): 2, 4, 5-6, 11-12a, 13b

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O LORD, you brought me up from the nether world; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me; O LORD, be my helper. You changed my mourning into dancing; O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

SECOND READING

2 Cor 8: 7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

ALLELUIA

Cf. 2 Tm 1: 10

✠. Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

GOSPEL

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction."

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
