FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Last weekend, several people commented on the new worship aids for our English liturgies. The hymns in English are now printed on trifold sheets that are distributed before Mass, and the readings are found in the bilingual missalettes in the pews. It will take some time to get used to this new way of doing things – we are still working out the kinks! What is most important, however, is everyone's active participation in the liturgy. It is good to use these printed resources to enter more consciously into the prayer of the Mass. The goal is to lift our hearts to God in sincere worship during the liturgy. At Mass, God receives the gift of our praise, and in return, He offers us His mercy and love.

Speaking of the liturgy, we have been blessed at Saint Joan of Arc with a very skillful organist. Bob Wisniewski, one of the most respected church musicians in Columbus, has shared his gifts with our community for a number of years. At the end of the summer, Bob will step away from Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish in order to assist at another church. I am extremely grateful for the ways Bob has enriched our liturgies. We do not have to say goodbye quite yet, but we can begin thanking Bob for his service. We should also pray that the Lord send us another capable organist!

On that note, please also pray for the tens of thousands of Catholics participating in the National Eucharistic Congress this week in Indianapolis. Parishioners from Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc will be there, representing our community. We are asking that God grant safe travel to the pilgrims, as well as a transformative experience for all. This Eucharistic Congress is an opportunity of renewal for the entire Catholic Church in the United States. Without a doubt, God wants to bring about a deeper faith and stronger devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. May our hearts continue to yearn for the incredible love of Christ that we have in the Eucharist.
