FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I am happy to announce that Sister Monika Maria will be joining our staff. She is a member of the Apostolic Sisters of Saint John, a religious order with sisters serving in nine different countries around the globe. Originally from Germany, Sister Monika taught at Ready High School on the west side of Columbus School last year. Now, she will support our Family Catechesis program, focusing on the education of our youngest children. We are blessed to have a religious sister working in our parish! Her presence is a reminder (especially to the girls and young women) that the religious life is a beautiful vocation in the life of the Church.

Sister Monika is not the only missionary we are meeting. All the parishes in the Diocese of Columbus take part in a Missionary Appeal each year. To that end, Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish welcomes two missionaries to our community, though they will be with us only for a few days. Father Stanislaus John, SAC, will be sharing his experience at Saint Peter campus, and Archbishop George Antonysamy will be speaking at Saint Joan of Arc campus. Our financial support of their ministries allows them to share the love of Christ with people on the other side of the world. It is often said in the Church, “no money, no mission.” Donations make the work of these missionaries possible.

Let me end with a wonderful verse from this weekend’s second reading. This encouragement from Saint Paul’s Letter to the Ephesians resonated with me: “All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ.” These are truly words to live by. May our community of faith continue to be marked by genuine kindness and compassion. These Christian virtues will surely attract others to our ranks.

Father David Schalk

All New - “Come and See”

Crowds making you blue? “Come and See” what prayer can do. Take a break from the noise & jot down a prayer intention or two for the prayer board in our “Come and See” Tent. Be inspired by the exquisite addition to our sacred art statue collection, The Sacred Heart of Jesus. Crafted by the Daprato Statuary Co. in Chicago, the 100-year-old statue was salvaged from St. Mary Church in Conneaut, OH and came to us through Henninger’s in Cleveland. Immerse yourself in the peace of prayer allowing it to transport you to the place of perfectly pure, selfless love that Jesus’s sacred heart exemplifies. Continue your devotional experience at home by taking a rosary, holy water, prayer card or prayer veil, all compliments of the Parish & its friends (while supplies last). Leave your contact information to learn more about opportunities in the Parish. We invite you to Holy Mass on Sunday to join our congregation in praying for all the prayer intentions. Visit our booth for a moment of quiet respite knowing that Jesus is at our Festival & that you are loved!

WHAT'S NEW

Ask A Priest

Have a burning Catholic question for our Padre? Ask away in our “Come and See” Tent. Every night from 7 – 7:30 pm, Father Schalk will answer questions like, “What’s your favorite part about being a priest?”, “Why do you always wear black?”, “How do I know I’m being called to the priesthood?” and more. Satisfy your Catholic curiosity while getting to know our Pastor a little better.

Saturday night ONLY, the Fun Bus will shuttle guests between Tyler Run Elementary School & SJOA

FESTIVAL LINGO

1 token = $1

What’s a token? Token /'tʊʊ.kən/ noun: SPSJOA Festival currency. No tokens = no cabbage rolls for you. Tokens ONLY are accepted for food and games at the Festival. Avoid the loooooong token lines by purchasing your tokens TODAY in the Narthex! You’ll thank us later.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY IS THURSDAY, AUGUST 15.

This is a Holy Day of Obligation, and we will have several Masses scheduled that day at both campuses. Please plan to attend. Our Parish Offices will be closed that day in observance of this solemnity.
