FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Let us welcome Father Enrique Alvarado, a new Theatine priest who recently arrived at our parish. He became a member of the Theatines in 2010, and he was ordained a priest for that community in August 2020. Before coming to Columbus, Father Enrique had a very fruitful ministry in the Archdiocese of Denver. In addition to serving at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish, he will also be covering Spanish Masses at Saint Mary Church in German Village. Please pray for Father Enrique as he settles in.

Thank you to everyone who has taken part in the Feasibility Study currently underway at our parish. Many individuals have already given feedback, and we are asking all parishioners to fill out a brief survey that is available in this weekend's bulletin. This Feasibility Study will help us move forward with our years-long, multi-phase plan for our facilities. Our goal is to meet the needs of our growing parish at both campuses.

Lastly, let me draw your attention to the second reading from this weekend's Mass. In the Letter to the Hebrew we read: "The Word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and through of the heart." This verse reminds us of the power of the Scriptures in our lives. In and through the Bible, Jesus shapes our heart and reveals His own. My prayer is that our encounter with the Word of God at every Mass transform our lives.

The joy the Festival brought to the community and the friendships forged among parishioners while volunteering: Priceless

Thank you St. Peter St. Joan of Arc parishioners for your inspiring show of support and outpouring of volunteerism over the course of the planning period and for the duration of the three days of the Festival. Planning the Festival is a mammoth feat. Building the Festival the week before is heroic. God literally shone down with heaven-sent weather over the three day event. Praise God for our talented, dedicated volunteers. With 2024 being the rebuilding year after several years without a Festival, the profitability in years to come is limited only by our imagination and dedication. You're invited to be involved next year to bring fresh ideas and talent.

Now may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you.

And I will do good to you because you have done this thing. ~2 Samuel 2:6

Spotlight on Vocations

At the start of each Mass, we pray the Angelus for vocations, lifting up the names of those who have answered the call. Over the next several weeks, we invite you to meet the faces of those called to vocations from our parish family and reflect on the power of prayer in fostering vocations.

Sister M. Solana of St. Joseph

Hello Parish Family,
 In August I made my first vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience with the Sisters of St Francis of Perpetual Adoration. This means that I am a temporarily professed sister in my first year of five before I will profess my final vows. My assignment is working in Mission Integration and Evangelization at our hospitals in Northwest Indiana. Some of my ministry includes promoting a Catholic identity and a joyful culture in the hospitals, leading faith formation for employees, and visiting patients and their families. I am so thankful for the support of my family: my parents Frank and Rose Voegele, and my siblings Annie, Luke, and Matthew. My hometown is Powell, Ohio and I grew up in the Saint Joan of Arc parish. I ask all of you to continue to pray for me for faithful perseverance, deep joy and peace, and the grace to know at all times that I am unconditionally loved. I am so appreciative of all your prayers and support!

Jacob Pagulayan

Hello Parish Family,
 My name is Jacob Pagulayan, and I am in my first year of formation at the Pontifical College Josephinum, specifically in the Propaedeutic year. I spent my summer in Brighton, MI, serving for Damascus in Catholic Youth Summer Camp as Program Staff. My family includes my parents, Ray and Maria, and my four siblings: Mariama, Joseph, Jun, and Anthony. My hometown is Powell, and my parish is St. Peter St. Joan of Arc. I would like to ask for your help by praying for me to trust in God's plan for my life, and for my family.

Fun Fact: I can do a very good Kermit impression, as well as Yoda

Do you know someone who is "Called by Name" to a religious vocation? Please share their name by filling out a "Called by Name" card available at the Welcome Desk.

Making memories tangible

We collaborate with you to make sure that what we deliver will be cherished for generations to come.

We embroider on our items or source exactly what you want. Memory bears sewn from clothing that has meaning Children's art, handwriting, company logos on uniforms – there's nothing that cannot be embroidered just for you.
