FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend, the Church everywhere celebrates World Mission Sunday. This occasion is yet another reminder of why the Church exists: to evangelize. Jesus calls us to carry joyfully the Good News to the furthest corners of the earth. On the local level, it is a privilege for us to share the goodness of our Catholic faith with the people around us. Let us not be afraid to give witness to our religion or to invite friends to join us at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish.

We are still in Respect Life Month, which means the Church in the U.S. is focused on initiatives that promote the Pro-Life movement. Thank you to the members of our community who are participating in Forty Days for Life this weekend. This peaceful demonstration at Planned Parenthood highlights the tragedy of abortion and the hope God provides when we turn to Him in difficult situations. Thank you also to our parishioners who have turned in their baby bottles filled with coins, cash, and checks for Pregnancy Decision Health Center. The work of PDHC is to accompany moms who need support during and after a pregnancy. Please be sure to return all baby bottles by next weekend.

The last day for our current parish-wide feasibility study is Monday, October 21. I am grateful to the hundreds of individuals who have already filled out this brief online survey. Your feedback helps us move forward with plans for our parish's facilities. I know your time is valuable! But please take a few moments to take the survey that is found in the bulletin (use the QR code to access it). We want to conduct the most accurate feasibility study as possible. Looking ahead to next weekend, I ask for your prayers for my father, Larry Schalk. He became a widower more than two years ago, and now he will enter into marriage once again. Our family will celebrate with him and his new bride, Debbie, at their parish in Cleveland. Larry and Debbie are "advanced in age," but young at heart! I am happy for him and for all octogenarians who are living life to the full.

Looking a little bit further ahead, do not forget that November 1 is a Holy Day of Obligation: the Solemnity of All Saints. Check your calendar and find the best time to make it to Mass that day. It will be a sacrifice to come to church during the week, but it will be worth it! It is a privilege for us to honor God on special feast days. This is one way to show gratitude for the countless blessings the Lord showers down upon us each and every day.

Father David Schalk

Peter Mallampalli

Hello Parish Family!

My name is Peter Mallampalli. I am currently in my fifth year of formation. I have completed my second year of Theology at the Theological College in Washington, DC. I am now beginning my Pastoral Year at St. Teresa of Kolkata Parish in Pittsburgh, PA.

Although I grew up mostly in Pittsburgh, my parents, Rama and Anne, moved to Dublin, OH during my freshman year of college. Despite their move, I remained in Pittsburgh and continued my involvement with Divine Mercy Parish. My connection to SPSJOA is through my parents, who are parishioners there. I also have two sisters, Mary and Grace, and a brother, Daniel.

This spring, I enjoyed a brief vacation in Colombia, followed by a 10-day mission trip to Chimbote, Peru with my classmates. Upon returning, I began my pastoral year assignment at St. Teresa of Kolkata Parish in Pittsburgh. At St. Teresa my responsibilities include blessing services, Spanish and English CCD, Spanish marriage prep, annulment work, visiting the sick, organizing spiritual programs and retreats such as the Life in the Spirit Seminar and running the high school youth group.

Fun Fact:

In my spare time, I enjoy skydiving and savoring a good cigar.

SPSJOA can support my seminarian journey through prayers, which are needed more than anything. Please pray not just for me to become a priest, but to become a holy priest. Additionally, pray that the Lord grants me the willingness to surrender everything into His hands and to follow wherever He leads me.

Thank you for your support and prayers!

~Peter Mallampalli

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION MONTH 7:

I continue to grow in my mother's womb and though I am thin and wrinkly now, I will begin to gain a lot of weight in the next months. I can open and close my eyes and look around. I can hear, taste, cough, yawn, and hiccup. I can recognize my mommy's voice. I receive antibodies from my mom to protect me from several diseases. You have protected me from abortion with your prayers and have helped my mother hear the Holy Spirit's call to "choose life." Please keep praying for me and my mom and dad.
