FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend, we are launching our annual Offertory Campaign for 2025. This is part of our efforts to promote stewardship in our community, focusing on Stewardship of Treasure. It takes intentionality to be excellent stewards of the material benefits we receive from God. The Offertory Campaign allows parishioners to reflect on their financial blessings and to commit anew to supporting the Church.

This is an exercise in faith. We believe that God has provided for us. We also believe that God calls us to share what we have been given. In quiet prayer, we ask the Holy Spirit to speak to us and to inform our offertory commitment for 2025. Our sincere dialogue with God leads us to donate to the Church with greater thanksgiving, trust, and joy.

Let me give a quick testimony; it has to do with our parish's recent Stewardship of Time Campaign. In late September, I asked members of our community to discern prayerfully a commitment of time. It could have been a commitment to prayer, service, or some ministry in the parish. My own promise was to an hour of Eucharistic Adoration on Wednesday nights. In these last several weeks, I can honestly say that that extra hour of prayer has born much spiritual fruit in my life. I am tremendously grateful that the Holy Spirit inspired me to make that commitment of time – I am a better man because of it.

Now, as we home in on Stewardship of Treasure, I will follow the Holy Spirit's lead once again. Participating in the 2025 Offertory Campaign, I will increase my financial support to Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish by ten percent. This corresponds to the increase in material blessings God has given me over the past twelve months. I make this commitment with expectant faith, trusting that God has good things in store for me and our parish in the New Year. I invite you to have the same expectant faith as you make your promise to this year's Offertory Campaign.

Fr. David Schalk

PRECIOUS BLOOD AT MASS

Beginning in Advent, we will distribute the Precious Blood at the 10:00 a.m. Mass at Saint Joan of Arc, and the 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Masses at Saint Peter. For each station of the Body of Christ, there will be an accompanying station for the Blood of Christ. No one is obligated to receive from the chalice. It will simply be an option for those who desire to receive Communion under both species. It will take everyone's patience during Mass as we get used to having the Precious Blood once again. Thank you in advance!

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

Our parish homebound ministers bring the Holy Eucharist to those in our parish family who are unable to attend Mass due to temporary or permanent conditions. Homebound ministers visit our parishioners in their own homes, in an assisted living or independent living center, or in a convalescent care facility. If you or anyone in your family would benefit from this ministry, please contact the parish office or email the Homebound Coordinator at brubal@spsjoa.org.

Homebound ministers are first trained as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and then receive additional training to serve the homebound. Please contact us at the email above if you feel called to serve in this most important ministry.

Spotlight on Vocations

At the start of each Mass, we pray the Angelus for vocations, lifting up the names of those who have answered the call. Over the next several weeks, we invite you to meet the faces of those called to vocations from our parish family and reflect on the power of prayer in fostering vocations.

Br. Nathanael Campion

Hello Parish Family,
My name is Br. Nathanael Campion. I am in my 4th year of religious life and my second year of philosophy at St. John Vianney Seminary in Denver, CO. This summer, I spent several days at Damascus' Equip Conference in Centerburg, Ohio, followed by my annual 8-day silent spiritual exercises. I then traveled to Istanbul, Turkey, with four other members of my community for a month-long evangelization mission to the Muslim population. Upon returning, I helped with a week of summer camp at LifeTeen Covecrest in Georgia, before heading to Yellowstone for our community vacation and ending the summer by assisting at NET Ministries missionary training in Minnesota. Now, I am back at the seminary, continuing my studies.

My family includes my parents, Tom Scarpitti, Anne and Andy Bott, and my siblings, Brian, Noah, and Tessa. Although my home parish is Our Lady of Peace in Columbus, Ohio, I frequently attended St. Peter's Church with my dad.

Please support my formation by praying for my growing community, the Servants of Christ Jesus, that we might remain obedient to all Jesus asks and refuse Him nothing.

A fun fact about me is that I am one of three men in my community who graduated from Ohio State, were involved in St. Paul's Outreach, and spent summers as missionaries at Damascus' Catholic Youth Summer Camp.

Thank you for your support and prayers.
~ Br. Nathanael Campion

Do you know someone who is "Called by Name" to a religious vocation? Please share their name by filling out a "Called by Name" card available at the Welcome Desk.

Please continue to support vocations with the SPSJOA Vocations Committee

ADVENT DEVOTIONALS

There will be copies of The Little Blue Book available after all the Masses on November 23 and 24. The Little Blue Book is a daily devotional to accompany you throughout the Advent Season with prayers and reflections. Make sure to grab a copy on your way out of Mass.

ADVENT PENANCE SERVICE

Join us this Advent at Saint Peter Campus for a Penance Service on Monday, December 2. The service will begin at 7:00 p.m. There will be several priests hearing Confessions that evening. If you are unable to join us that evening, our parish will still offer Confession during our normally scheduled times. At Saint Peter on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:00 to 6:25 p.m. and at Saint Joan of Arc, Monday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. – or by appointment.
