FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We are now in Advent, a liturgical season that is marked by preparation. Through our prayers and spiritual practices, we ready ourselves for the coming of the Lord. He seeks to enter hearts and homes that truly long for him.

Thus, our objective this Advent is to deepen our desire for the Lord. This deepening does not happen without us being intentional, so I encourage you to discern how to best embrace this season. With regard to the practice of your religion, what will look different over the next twenty-five days?

One concrete suggestion: go to confession. Our desire for God grows in our heart when we remove the clutter of sin. Our Advent penance service is this Monday, December 2, at 7:00 p.m. at the Saint Peter campus. There will be several kind and merciful priests visiting our parish that evening. If you cannot join us then, please make time this month to experience God's mercy in this beautiful sacrament.

One last suggestion: let Mary be your guide. No one has ever longed for Jesus more than our Virgin Mother. Every day, lift your mind to Mary and ask her to accompany you this Advent. When we allow Mary to draw close to us, we find ourselves more deeply in love with her Son.

4:00 P.M. CHRISTMAS EVE MASS

Because the 4:00 p.m. Christmas Eve Mass is historically preferred by so many, we are offering four simultaneous Masses across both campuses to accommodate as many as possible:

4:00 p.m. - Saint Joan of Arc campus

*Two Masses will be held at the same time: One in the church and one in the Social Hall.

4:00 p.m. - Saint Peter campus

*Two Masses will be held at the same time: One in the church and one in the McEwan Center.

To ensure a smooth experience, we encourage you to arrive early, follow the directions of those directing parking and seating, and come with a spirit of prayer and patience.

These simultaneous Masses will only be during the 4:00 o'clock hour. All other Mass times will take place in the church for each respective campus. If one of the other Mass times works well for your family, you will probably find it less crowded.

We look forward to celebrating the Nativity of the Lord with you!

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE*Annual Offertory Appeal*

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE OFFERTORY APPEAL?

This Appeal aims to encourage parishioners to prayerfully consider their financial support for our parish in 2025. It seeks to ensure our ministries and programs continue to thrive and grow, as well as to provide a solid financial foundation for the parish.

WHAT DOES THIS HAVE TO DO WITH MY FAITH?

Your generosity to our community is an expression of your faith. We give sacrificially as a sign of our trust in God and our commitment to His Church.

CHECK OUT THE ANNUAL IMPACT REPORT

The Annual Impact Report for SPSJOA is available for all!

As you discern your Offertory Pledge for 2025, we pray you are inspired by the difference we are making together as disciples of Christ, both within our parish community and beyond. Take a moment to discover the incredible fruits of your stewardship.

To access the report, scan the QR code below or visit our Stewardship webpage at spsjoa.org/stewardship.

Don't delay - take a look today!

Coming up soon!

PLEDGE WEEKEND: DECEMBER 7-8

UPDATE FROM ST. TERESA'S OUTREACH

ADVENT PENANCE SERVICE

Join us at Saint Peter Campus for our Advent Penance Service this Monday, December 2. The service will begin at 7:00 p.m. Several priests will be hearing Confessions that evening. If you are unable to join us for the Penance Service, our parish will still offer Confession during our normally scheduled times. At Saint Peter on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6:00 p.m., and at Saint Joan of Arc, Monday through Saturday at 9:00 a.m. – or by appointment.

ADDING SACRED MUSIC TO MASS: THE PROPERS

You might have noticed a few new chants at Mass this weekend. These added chants, the Entrance Chant and the Offertory Chant, are part of the sung Propers – the sung parts of the Mass that change from one liturgy to the next. Singing the Propers helps to elevate our liturgical prayer and keep us connected to our Catholic musical lineage. Most importantly, singing these chants unites us in sacred song and helps us grow in our love for the Lord who is truly present at Mass.
