FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I often joke with parents of little children as they leave church after Mass. I ask, "Who won today? The kids or the adults?" Most of the time, the parents say that the kids won – they are so rambunctious! I was surprised one Sunday when a mom replied with a smile, "I just know the devil didn't win." I gave her a quizzical look. She continued, "After all, Father Schalk, we made it to Mass!"

What a wonderful spiritual insight. The devil does everything he can to keep families from going to church. There are a million reasons why parents would rather stay home than wrangle with their children and herd them into the pews. That is why we have to support all the families at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish and encourage them to continue bringing our youngest parishioners to Mass.

In this weekend's Gospel, we hear how Mary and Joseph presented the child Jesus in the temple. This ritual was a mandate according to Jewish law, thus the Holy Family was obedient to God's commands. Simeon and Anna, two elderly individuals who were praying in the temple that day, gratefully experienced the presence of Christ because of Mary and Joseph's faithfulness. In the same vein, we all give thanks to God for the beautiful example of parents diligently practicing their faith and raising the next generation of Catholics. I say to those parents, "Persevere!"

Father David Schalk

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

The Church celebrates World Day for Consecrated Life this Sunday, February 2. Let us pray for all who are called to this wonderful vocation:

Father Most Holy, look upon the men and women whom You have called to follow Your Son in total consecration to Your love; may they always let the Spirit guide them; may they be tireless in giving of themselves and in serving You, so as to be faithful witnesses to the joy that flows from the Gospel, and preachers of the Truth that leads human beings to the spring of eternal life. Supply for their needs and enable them to bear fruit as spiritual fathers and mothers of Your children. Open the hearts of the young men and women You are calling to this community so that they can respond with joy and generosity. Amen.
