FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It is Superbowl weekend. I thoroughly enjoy the NFL, so I am sad that the season is coming to a close. However, it may be helpful not having that distraction in my life for a while. I look forward to having a little more time to give to my relationship with God on Sundays.

Along those same lines, Lent is less than one month away. It is not too soon to begin thinking about your Lenten goals. Consider what you will sacrifice and where you will dedicate more energy to prayer and service. Lent is a reminder of the call to make Jesus the center of our lives.

Let me end with a word of encouragement to our parishioners who are married. Each year around Valentine's Day, the Church celebrates World Marriage Sunday. This is a way to highlight the goodness of marriage and its irreplaceable value in society. For excellent resources on marriage, visit www.ForYourMarriage.org. I also invite married couples to participate in a Lenten series designed just for them: Building a Eucharistic Marriage (the information on this opportunity is found in this weekend's bulletin). May God bless and strengthen the marital commitment of every husband and wife.

Father David Schalk

SPECIAL NOTICE FOR ALL OF OUR LECTORS, EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION, USHERS AND ALTAR SERVERS AT THE SAINT PETER CAMPUS

We are about to begin using a software program (Ministry Scheduling Program, or MSP) to generate the weekly schedule of ministers for each weekend's English language Masses.

Within the next day or two, you will receive an email from "Liturgical Ministry Scheduling Coordinator." Please watch for that email and follow its instructions to log into MSP.

You will be asked to verify or correct your contact information and Mass preferences. The email will also include more information about how the system works, making it easier for you to manage your schedule and get substitutes when needed.

If you are currently serving in one of these ministries at the English-Speaking Masses at the Saint Peter Campus and you do not receive this email by Tuesday, February 11, please contact the parish office. We want to make sure you are scheduled in the weeks ahead.

CAREGIVING: OVERCOMING FEAR

Paula Taliaferro, a local dementia care specialist and international Focolare presenter, teaches how fear often influences the behavior of individuals with dementia, terminal illness, and brain-related issues. How can we relieve fear and create the feeling of the safety of home for care receivers – and for caregivers? If you are caring for someone with one of these needs, you are invited to come to the caregiver support group that gathers at the Saint Peter Campus. Along with spiritual support, practical and emotional support are also offered. Our gatherings are on the third Saturday of each month from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. The next meeting is February 15.
