FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Let me remind everyone of the Penance Service that is taking place this Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. at the Saint Joan of Arc campus. As I write these words, I know of twenty priests who are committed to hearing confessions that evening. If you are unable to come to the Penance Service this week, keep in mind that we also have confessions Monday through Saturday at 9:00 a.m. at Saint Joan of Arc, as well as Monday through Friday at 6:00 p.m. at Saint Peter.

In addition to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, consider other ways to deepen your relationship with God this Lent. We recall that the three Lenten pillars are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. These spiritual practices help us take the next step in our walk with Christ. Along these lines, let me challenge you once again to: 1.) make time to converse in quiet with God; 2.) sacrifice some comfort that you enjoy; 3.) serve someone who needs attention or support.

Speaking of prayer, I have always loved the Stations of the Cross during Lent. This Catholic devotion has helped me understand and appreciate the meaning of Jesus' Passion. The fourth station is my favorite: Jesus Meets His Sorrowful Mother. I never tire of thinking about the heart of Mary as she gazes upon her suffering Son. During Lent, I invite you to look closely at the Stations of the Cross in our churches. There are beautiful stained glass images at Saint Joan of Arc and exquisite reliefs at Saint Peter.

OUR CALL TO LIFE

SPSJOA SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

March 25-December 25

The program works this way!

You are invited to "Spiritually Adopt" a child in the womb who is in danger of abortion. You choose a name for your child and pray for him/her until Christmas, mirroring the nine months Jesus spent in his mother's womb. In the bulletin each month there will be an update on how the child is growing and developing.

We will pass out Spiritual Adoption cards after each Mass on March 22 and 23. If you'd rather, you can simply cut out the card to the right.

Please join us in this prayer to help not only the unborn child, but his/her mother. Pray that this mother will choose to give life to this child. Giving life will be a decision she will not regret in the future.

We hope all will participate in this endeavor. It is prayer that will help us end this holocaust of innocent babies in the womb.

~SPSJOA Respect Life Committee

Prayer for Spiritual Adoption

*Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
I love you very much
and ask you to spare
the life of our unborn baby,*

_____,
*who is in danger of abortion.
May he/she grow strong and healthy, and be blessed with a beautiful and happy birth. Amen.*

*"Before I formed you in the womb,
I knew you." [Jer 1:5]*

Lent Penance Service

Join us this Tuesday, March 18 at the Saint Joan of Arc Campus for a penance service beginning at 7:00 p.m. There will be several priests hearing confessions that evening.

Tips for making a good confession

Before: Ask God for the grace to see your shortcomings and to trust in his mercy. Review a good examination of conscience that helps to identify your sins. Make a list of your sins to use during confession.

During: Be direct. It is typically not necessary to give the context for your sins. Mention your sins and not the sins of others. Know that the priest is there to help you and that God is there to forgive you.

After: Thank God for the gift of reconciliation. Do the penance assigned to you with gratitude for Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Commit to sharing the mercy you received by offering forgiveness and being an instrument of peace.
