FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We are blessed this weekend with the exquisite parable of the Prodigal Son. It is a story that resonates with each of us. In different ways, we have all run from God, felt the pangs of our conscience, and returned to his arms of mercy. This Lent, let us prayerfully apply this parable to our lives and give thanks for the forgiveness we have in Christ. Let us also lift our grateful hearts to God for the beautiful sacrament of reconciliation. That is the surest road to the loving embrace of the Father.

Our Lenten Parish Mission will take place this Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. It is an engaging three-day program that will inspire us to live as better disciples of Jesus. In fact, the purpose of this mini-retreat is to explore the meaning of discipleship. We will discover the joy of being with Christ, learning from him, and imitating him. Do not worry if you cannot attend all three nights – come when you can!

Lastly, let me draw your attention one more time to the Purified event with Jason Evert. He will speak at our parish on Sunday, April 27. Jason is a uniquely gifted speaker who uses humor and wit to share the Church's teachings on relationships, chastity, love, and gender. We know what the broader culture has to say about these things; it is good to listen to what Jesus has to say as well. This event is designed for teens who are at least thirteen years old. It will be incredibly helpful for parents to hear Jason's message, too. Please buy your tickets for Purified as soon as possible!

VOCATIONS CORNER

March 2025

The Parish Vocations Committee, established in February 2022, recently celebrated its third-year anniversary, marking its 25th meeting. Our mission: "...to support the families of men and women who are realizing their discernment and to promote religious vocations for men and women in our Parish and in the Diocese of Columbus".

Discernment is a process of actively seeking and identifying God's will for your life; whether it is marriage, priesthood, consecrated religious life, or single life. Discernment is not choosing something you will do, rather it is discovering who you are made to be.

OFFICE OF CATHOLIC ADVOCACY & SOCIAL DOCTRINE PRESENTATION ON PALM SUNDAY

Join us for the start of Holy Week as Dr. David Lyons, Director at the Diocesan Office of Catholic Advocacy & Social Doctrine presents, "Witness against the Machine: Catholic Social Teaching and Being Human in the Modern Age." Discussions of Catholic Social Teaching often fail to grapple with the deeper problems that the Church's Social Teaching addresses as well as the full implications of that teaching. Dr. Lyons will seek to correct that. Along the way, he will provide an overview of key documents in the Church's social teaching, putting them in conversation with each other and in their historical context. It's a wonderful opportunity to conclude our preparation for the Easter Triduum and the Feast of our Lord's Resurrection! Join us for this hourlong presentation on Palm Sunday, April 13th, following the 11:00 a.m. Mass on the St. Peter campus in the Blue Room. Light refreshments will be served.

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY – EQUIPPING THE FAMILY: HAVING CRITICAL CONVERSATIONS

The constant flood of influence that comes through the internet and social media in all of its various forms, along with social pressures from peers make it difficult for children to live virtuous and holy lives. In the digital age, it's not a matter of if your child will see something inappropriate online. It's only a matter of when. And regrettably, internet pornography is teaching our children how and what to think about sex and marriage.

Next weekend, April 5-6, the Diocese of Columbus will be celebrating our Second Annual Safe Haven Sunday. This weekend of awareness will provide free resources to give you confidence for how to talk to your children about internet dangers, as well as their personal online and offline choices.

Please join us with your prayers and presence as we prepare for this unique event. To learn more, please visit columbuscatholic.org/safe-haven-sunday.

Family Rosary Gathering Tuesday, April 8 6-7:30pm SJOA Campus
