FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend, we celebrate Mother's Day. This is a privileged opportunity to recognize the goodness and the beauty of our moms. It is also an occasion for us pray to God for our mothers, grandmothers, and godmothers. May the Lord fill them with His grace and reward them for their sacrifices. My mother, Bernadette, passed away in 2022. I remember her with great affection and pray for all mothers who have died. May they gaze upon the face of God, in union with Mary, our heavenly Mother.

The Church throughout the world is also celebrating the Fourth Sunday of Easter, known as Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus says in the Gospel, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." It is a great challenge to hear the voice of the Lord in our culture because we are immersed in constant noise and bombarded with incessant distractions. Now, more than any other time in the history of the human race, we need silence. Let us fight for those moments of quiet so that we can listen in prayer to the voice of the Good Shepherd.

One more celebration this weekend: Sunday is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. As Christians, we believe that the Lord has a plan for our lives. He calls some to marriage and others to live as generous single people; God invites some to the priesthood and others to religious life. To embrace our vocation in every unique season of our life is the key to our holiness and eternal happiness. On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let us give thanks to God for the vocation He has given each one of us, and let us encourage the young people in our life to be open to God's call.

Father David Schalk

MARIAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of the Church, to you we commend our young people, in particular those called to follow your Son as brothers, sisters, and priests. You know, O Mary, the struggles, doubts, and obstacles they must face. Assist them to answer Yes to the divine call, as you did at the invitation of the angel. Draw them near to your heart so that they can understand the joy that awaits them when they answer your Son's call to be witnesses of His love in the world.

Amen
