FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I would first like to highlight the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity which the Church celebrates this weekend. In the opening prayer at Mass, we "acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory" and "adore God's Unity, powerful in majesty." The God whom Christians worship is both three and one: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We marvel at this mystery and surrender ourselves in faith to our Triune God.

This Sunday, we also celebrate Father's Day. We honor our fathers for their irreplaceable role in the family and for the immense good they do for the Church. Children first come to know the love of God the Father through the experience they have with their dads, and I am tremendously grateful for the men who have embraced this vocation in the life of our parish. Let us pray that God bless our fathers, grandfathers, and godfathers, both living and deceased.

Lastly, I would like to express my sincere appreciation for Father David Arroyo who has faithfully served Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc for the past two years. Sadly, Father Arroyo's last Mass at our parish is this weekend. The good news is that there are plans for him to stay in residence in the rectory at the Saint Peter campus next year. He will commute downtown each day, working full time alongside Bishop Fernandes as the Vicar for Hispanic Ministry for the Diocese of Columbus. Father Arroyo is an excellent priest and will continue to be a blessing to the Catholic Church in Central Ohio.

Father David Schalk

BELIZE MISSION TRIP

Please pray for Fr. Schalk and our 18 parishioners who will be serving on mission in San Ignacio, Belize this week.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus,

As we embark on this mission trip to San Ignacio, Belize, we come before You with open hearts and a willingness to serve. Guide our steps and bless our journey, that we may be instruments of Your love and compassion.

Fill us with Your Holy Spirit, that we may be beacons of hope and bring Your light to those we encounter. Grant us the strength to persevere through challenges and the grace to embrace the unexpected.

May our presence in San Ignacio be a source of comfort and encouragement. Help us to build meaningful relationships and to share Your message of faith, hope, and love.

We pray for the people of San Ignacio, that they may experience your abundant blessings. Open our hearts to their needs and guide us to serve them with humility and compassion.

Lord, we offer ourselves to You completely. Use us as Your instruments to spread Your kingdom and to bring Your love to all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola, pray for us.
