FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We celebrate the beautiful Solemnity of Corpus Christi this weekend. For us as Catholics, our belief in the Eucharist differentiates us from other Christian denominations. We trust absolutely in Jesus' words at the Last Supper: "This is my body... This is the chalice of my blood." Each year, Corpus Christi allows us to renew our devotion to this central mystery of our religion. The Church remembers her identity: we are a thoroughly Eucharistic people.

We give thanks to God for Father Victor Mendez who has provided our parish with the gift of the Eucharist for the past two years. With heavy hearts, we say goodbye to Father Victor who has been reassigned to serve in the seminary in the city of Guadalajara in Mexico. From my perspective, especially noteworthy has been Father Victor's ministry at London Correctional Institution over the past year. In addition to his responsibilities at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc, he has spent countless hours serving the incarcerated at that facility. I'm confident the Lord will continue to do great things through Father Victor in the second chapter of his priestly ministry.

One last note: We have three significant events taking place next weekend. On Friday, June 27, we will have a special bilingual Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at 6:00 p.m. at the Saint Peter campus. Following the Mass there will be a Holy Hour and a light dinner. On Saturday, June 28, we will have our Parish Picnic beginning at 5:30 p.m. This fun, family-friendly event will also take place at the Saint Peter campus. The very next day – Sunday, June 29 – we will celebrate our patronal feast: the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. In the liturgies that Sunday, we will ask Saint Peter to pray powerfully for our parish family. The flurry of activity at our parish can sometimes leave my head spinning, but I am grateful that we are busy with things that glorify our God!

Father David Schalk

REMEMBERING SAINT PETER SAINT JOAN OF ARC LEGACY PLANNING WITH RETIREMENT PLANS

This is the second installment of a series on four options for making legacy gifts to the St. Peter St. Joan of Arc Endowment Fund or to St. Peter St. Joan of Arc Church (“SPSJOA” shall mean either the Endowment or the Church). Life insurance and gift annuities will be discussed in future installments. This article will discuss funding legacy gifts using retirement plans.

Retirement plan assets (interests in employer sponsored qualified plans, self-employed retirement plans and IRAs) are often a significant part of the estate of a decedent. When these assets are bequeathed to individual heirs, they are subject to income tax upon receipt of distributions from the retirement plan by the heirs. Unlike personally owned investments (stocks, real estate, personal property), retirement plan assets are not eligible for a step up in basis to fair value at the date of death. This makes retirement plan assets excellent candidates for charitable gifts at death, since charitable organizations are exempt from income tax on receiving retirement plan distributions. Thus, naming SPSJOA as a beneficiary of the retirement account is income tax efficient.

Of course, more than one beneficiary can be named as a beneficiary of the retirement account assets. Thus, a parishioner could name SPSJOA as a beneficiary of a percentage or dollar amount of the retirement account, and a surviving spouse or other family members could be named as beneficiaries of the balance of the retirement account. Planning for retirement plan distributions might be confusing, but it is not complicated. Parishioners, however, should discuss this planning with their professional advisors as part of their overall estate planning.

If you have already included SPSJOA in your planning or if you or a family member desires more information about planning for your legacy to SPSJOA, please contact Stephanie Grieser at sgrieser@spsjoa.org who can connect you with a member of the planning committee for the SPSJOA Legacy Society. Legacy planning is an excellent way to remember SPSJOA and all of the wonderful gifts that have been received from God.
