FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Recently, I participated in our parish's international mission trip to Belize. A group of nineteen parishioners spent time at Sacred Heart Parish in the city of San Ignacio. We ran Vacation Bible School for young people, constructed a sidewalk at a Catholic junior college, and made home visits to families in need. The experience moved my heart in unexpected ways, and the Holy Spirit clearly made His presence felt in the wonderful encounters we had with the people there. I look forward to returning to Belize for another mission trip in the not-too-distant future.

Speaking of missions, our parish is hosting Bishop Selvister Ponnunmuthan and Absalom Fernandez Antony for our annual Missionary Appeal weekend. Each year, missionaries from around the world visit churches in the Diocese of Columbus.

They share stories from their ministry and seek financial assistance. We have the opportunity to support the Diocese of Punulur, Kerala (India), which does not have the same infrastructure or resources as we do in Central Ohio. Please welcome Selvister Ponnunmuthan and Absalom Fernandez Antony and consider how you can help them in their work of building God's Kingdom in India.

Lastly, please pray for the two priests who will very soon be a part of our community. Father Joseph Rolwing, one of the newly ordained priests of the Diocese of Columbus, begins his ministry on Tuesday, July 8, and Father Tomás Carvajal arrives on Friday, July 11. If you would like to learn more about Father Joseph and Father Tomás, you are invited to the upcoming meet-and-greet events. Please remember that these priests need our support during this time of transition. Let us offer them encouragement and show them the kindness of Christ in the days ahead.

Father David Schalk

Belize TEAM THANK YOU & SAVE THE DATE

The Mission Team thanks you for your prayers during our first mission trip to San Ignacio, Belize June 14-20. We had a beautiful experience working with Sacred Heart Primary School and Sacred Heart High School and Junior College. To learn more about this experience and how we plan to continue serving our brothers and sisters in San Ignacio, save the date for Monday, August 18, at 7 p.m. in the McEwan Center gym. Team members will share their stories and answer any questions you may have about supporting this ministry.

A message from Birthright of Columbus

Thank you to the very talented quilters of St. Peter St. Joan of Arc for your recent donation of baby quilts to Birthright of Columbus!

A new program called Safe Sleep does not allow blankets of any kind in the crib. Your quilts will be used to cover strollers, car seats, but most of all a clean space for tummy time. When on their tummy what fun babies will have as they look at the bright colors and design of your quilts. Mothers love a gift of "someone made this for my baby!!" Thank you for your talent and effort!

We look forward to assisting you!

As announced in our June 8 bulletin, due to the continued growth in our community, we are embarking on our “Building Our Future” capital campaign to ensure our legacy of faith for generations to come. Today, we would like to provide an overview of the needs of our parish, which are focused on three main areas:

- We know many families in our community are looking for more options for education for their children. Several of our local Catholic elementary schools are already at capacity. Therefore, we will repurpose existing space at St. Peter campus to create a dedicated Pre-K to Grade 2 school, ensuring our youngest learners have an effective start to their religious education.
- To continue their faith-based learning, we will also develop a new Grade 3 to Grade 8 school at the St. Joan of Arc campus. Both buildings will serve students, as well as expand our capacity for religious education, ministry groups, and parish activities. We will have more space to gather, celebrate, and pray.
- We will create an enriched worship space at St. Joan of Arc, fostering in parishioners a deep sense of the holiness of the church. Beautification to the sanctuary will complement the newly installed crucifix and help individuals in their prayer.

We will be sharing more information about this campaign in the bulletin over the next several months, while also reaching out to each parish family to invite your participation.

If you would like to receive updates via e-mail, scan the QR code or visit <https://bit.ly/buildingourfuturecampaign> to sign up. And please pray for God’s blessing upon “Building our Future” at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc.
