FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus speaks these powerful words: "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Our Lord constantly reminds us that the measure of our success is not wealth, but rather faith and love which bind us to God. Only when we are rooted firmly in a personal relationship with Christ, who Himself embraced poverty and simplicity – only then can we understand the value of our material possessions. Disciples of Jesus truly guard against greed; that is to say, we honor the humility of our God by striving to be generous stewards of the blessings we have received.

Speaking of blessings, I anticipate an outpouring of grace upon our parish through the experience of "The Rescue Project" in the fall. This unique presentation of the Christian story introduces people to Jesus in an engaging, attractive way. "The Rescue Project" helps men and women see their relationship with Christ as a way to become more fully human and happy. The best part about "The Rescue Project" is that it is meant for everyone, especially for individuals who have fallen away from the practice of the faith and for those who have never understood why Christianity adds value to our lives. Please make room on your calendar: we will have groups gather on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, beginning September 17. And please consider whom you are going to invite.

Father David Schalk
