FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The responsorial psalm this weekend is Psalm 117. It is called the “responsorial psalm” because it “responds to” a theme presented in the first reading. For example, the first reading and the responsorial psalm in this weekend’s liturgy speak of every nation coming to know and worship God.

Psalm 117 is unique because it is the shortest of all 150 psalms – only two verses. It reads: “O praise the Lord, all you nations; acclaim him, all you peoples! For his mercy has prevailed over us; and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.” This would be a great Scripture to memorize and repeat often throughout the day.

In addition to its brevity, I appreciate that this psalm answers the question of why we acclaim the Lord. Our God is merciful, faithful, and altogether worthy of our praise. Psalm 117 covers some of the most essential aspects of the spiritual life: we constantly lift our hearts in adoration to God whose goodness has flooded our lives.

FIRST FRIDAY PRAYER AT SAINT JOAN OF ARC

Beginning in September, we will have new opportunities to draw close to Christ on the first Friday of the month. During the 8:30 a.m. Mass, we will offer both the Precious Body and Precious Blood during Communion. Then, during the normal Rosary and Confessions that follow the liturgy, we will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on the main altar of the church. Prayer ministry teams will be available to pray with parishioners after Mass as well. Prayer ministry allows individuals to receive prayer for their personal needs and spiritual encouragement. We are excited to encounter the love of God in these ways on the first Friday of each month.

MEN'S CLUB

Men of Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish, if you are looking for more spiritual fellowship, a unique bonding with other great men, and/or a connection that you have never felt before, please visit the parish Men's Club. We meet monthly, typically on the first Thursday of the month. Join us for our next meeting on Thursday, September 4, at the Saint Joan of Arc Campus, Rooms 1 and 2 at 7:30 p.m.

STO COLLECTION FOR THE POOR SUNDAY, AUGUST 31

Sunday, August 31, is the last Sunday of the month. There will be ushers in the vestibule with baskets for our monthly special collection for the poor. Parishioners are able to donate as they exit the church after Mass. You can also donate to the poor on our parish website. Thank you for your generosity in serving the needy in our community!

Surviving Divorce was created to bring hope and healing to those who have experienced the pain and loneliness of a broken marriage. It is for the newly separated and divorced and those still struggling with issues many years later. It will help them find answers to their questions, restore hope, and begin authentic healing. This video-based series includes personal testimonies of Catholic men and women who have experienced the breakdown of their families. They courageously share their stories with heart, humor, and wisdom. As they witness to their pain and the healing power of Christ in their lives, participants will laugh, cry, and identify with their journeys from heartache to healing.

Sanctuary Enrichment at Saint Joan of Arc

In this week's Building Our Future update, we would like to share the third focus area for the capital campaign: the enhancement of the sanctuary at the St. Joan of Arc Campus.

The liturgy is central to our Catholic faith, and the dignity of our space for prayer is a priority. Simple yet meaningful renovations in the church will help lift our minds to God and foster a sense of reverence. New statues and liturgical art will serve as a sign of our love for the saints and the Eucharist. This aspect of the project (the smallest in terms of cost) will draw us more deeply into the liturgy and devotional prayer.

We will continue sharing more information about this campaign in the bulletin over the next several months, while also reaching out to each parish family to invite your participation.

If you would like to receive updates via e-mail, scan the QR code. And please pray for God's blessing upon Building Our Future at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc.
