FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King. Jesus teaches through His ministry this important spiritual maxim: to reign is to serve. With benevolence and love, a King cares for his subjects, especially the poor and vulnerable. We strive to imitate our humble King by washing the feet of our brothers and sisters.

Our nation celebrates Thanksgiving this week, a holiday filled with extraordinary significance for our Christian faith. On the fourth Thursday of November, we stir up our gratitude and offer it to God. This leads me to another spiritual maxim: to give thanks to God is to receive His gift of joy. We are quick to count our blessings, which causes us to rejoice in the goodness of our God.

Next weekend, we will begin a new liturgical year. It is not too soon to discern what God is asking of you during the Advent season. How will you spiritually prepare for Christmas? Will you take more time for prayer? Will you dedicate more time to help those in need? Will you create more silence at the beginning or end of the day? Let us use the upcoming season of Advent to ready our hearts for the coming of the Lord.

Father David Schalk

- Parishioners' spiritual growth
- Engagement with parish life
- Beliefs, satisfaction, and participation

It's anonymous, takes just 10–15 minutes, and gives us a snapshot of our parish's strengths and opportunities!

Why It Matters

Your voice helps us:

- Identify what's working and what needs attention
- Make data-informed decisions for pastoral planning
- Focus on evangelization and leadership development

Every parish in the Diocese of Columbus is participating — this is our chance to be heard!

What's Expected

- Watch for the survey coming soon!
- Fill it out online or on paper
- Encourage others to participate

EVERY RESPONSE COUNTS!
