FROM THE PAROCHIAL VICAR'S DESK

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. The Lateran Basilica is the cathedral church of the Diocese of Rome, and is therefore the “mother church” for the whole world. As Catholics, church buildings are incredibly important for us. They are sacred spaces where Christ dwells with His people. We give thanks to God today for the Lateran Basilica, but we also rejoice that God dwells with us in our church buildings. The God of the Universe lives here – in Central Ohio. He is always waiting for us to come and visit Him in the tabernacle, and He rejoices every time we enter this sacred space.

During the month of November, the Church traditionally meditates on what have come to be referred to as the “Four Last Things”: Death, Judgment, Heaven, and Hell. Although these topics make many of us uncomfortable (myself included!), we can obtain great wisdom by calling them to mind. As we continue to pray for the souls of the faithful departed this month, we remember that we, too, will one day join their ranks. May God help us remain faithful to the end as we confidently entrust ourselves to His infinite Mercy!

As many of you know, Father Schalk is currently in Italy on a parish pilgrimage with a group of our parishioners. We pray for all of those men and women who are representing St. Peter St. Joan of Arc in the eternal city. Until they return, Fr. Tomás and I are enjoying 33% more space in the rectory. I do hope, however, that our local Chipotles aren't suffering too much from Father Schalk's absence. I trust that he is keeping all of us in prayer as he makes his way through the Holy Doors during this Jubilee Year. And I'm sure that he is thanking God for the chance to be a priest at such a wonderful parish – his parochial vicar is every day!

Father Joseph Rolwing

THE CAREGIVER TOOLBOX: CARING FOR THOSE WHO PROVIDE DAILY CARE

Those who provide daily care for an individual with dementia, Parkinson's, mental health concerns, terminal illness, or disability often risk a decline in their own emotional, mental or physical health. This session offers a practical framework for caregivers to assess their own situation and take steps to avoid burnout while continuing to Create HOME for the person needing the caregiver's assistance. Because every situation is unique, participants will be provided with some tools to create their own plan of action.

MARRIAGE MINISTRY UPDATES

NOVEMBER, 9

ST PETER
ST JOAN OF ARC
Marriage Ministry

Marriage is a Vocation

When Catholics hear the word “vocation,” they usually think of priests and nuns. It’s these people –these “special” people—who are chosen to live lives of radical discipleship and to devote themselves completely to Jesus.

Yet it turns out that marriage is a vocation too. The word “vocation” literally means “calling” – it is a call from God to follow him and love him in a particular way. God calls men and women together in marriage so that they might bring his love into the world through their love for one another.

It’s easy for husbands and wives to forget this, but it’s true: God called them into this beautiful life together. He is the One who directed the course of their lives so that they might meet each other, fall in love, and become one. Radical discipleship is not just for the priests and nuns. It is also for husbands and wives, living out the vocation of marriage.

By: Father Joseph

MARRIAGE CHALLENGE:

Thank your spouse for one way you recognize that he or she is "laying down his/her life" for you.

BONUS:

Make some small sacrifice this week and offer it for your spouse - with silence and good cheer!

"There is no greater love within a marriage and a family than for the spouses and children to lay down their lives for one another. This is the heart of the vocation of marriage, the heart of the call to become holy."

- From Marriage: Love and Life in the Divine Plan USCCB Pastoral Letter, November 17, 2009, p. 48

TESTIMONY FROM PETE AND JEAN SUPRON,
PARISHIONERS OF SAINT PETER SAINT JOAN OF ARC

We are so excited that St. Peter St. Joan of Arc is starting a school! Our children went to St. Michael School and Bishop Watterson so we know what a difference a Catholic education can make. When we began looking at schools for our children, Pete was indifferent as to whether they went to Catholic school, but Jean was passionate about a Catholic education. She went to Catholic school for eight years and wanted her children educated in a place where the practice of our faith was a normal part of every day.

In addition to the excellent academic education the children received, we grew in our knowledge and understanding of the faith as a family. By participating in school activities and helping the children with their homework the whole family was educated – and we found ourselves spending more and more time in faith-building activities!

Having a parish school provides opportunities for evangelization, faith building and a sense of community that lasts long after your children have graduated! It is this sense of community that we want for the children and families of St. Peter St. Joan of Arc Parish, and this is why we are supporting the Building Our Future campaign.

The Building Our Future campaign will allow our parish to offer Catholic education, provide more space for Family Catechesis, and address other facility needs in the life of our parish.

If you would like to receive updates about the campaign via e-mail, scan the QR code.
And please pray for God's blessing upon Building Our Future at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc.

AVE MARIA ACADEMY

Inspired by Mary's "yes", we nurture each child's gifts - mind, heart and soul.

The New School at St. Peter St. Joan of Arc!

We are thrilled to announce the opening of Ave Maria Academy in the Fall of 2026—our new parish school within the Diocese of Columbus dedicated to forming young hearts and minds in faith, virtue, and academic excellence. The academy will be located in the McEwan Center on the St. Peter Campus and will begin by welcoming students in preschool, pre-kindergarten, and kindergarten, with an additional grade level added each year to go through eighth grade. Staffed by the Little Servant Sisters of the Immaculate Conception alongside devoted lay educators, Ave Maria Academy will provide a classical curriculum that nurtures intellectual curiosity and Catholic faith, complemented by a Montessori-inspired approach to religious education that helps children encounter Christ in a personal and joyful way. Enrollment opens in January 2026, and we invite families to join us in building this vibrant community rooted in faith, learning, and love. We are unapologetically Catholic. We are Ave Maria Academy!
