FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend, the Church celebrates Gaudete Sunday – “Gaudete” meaning “Rejoice.” Christians rejoice this time of year because our wait is almost complete: the coming of our Savior draws near! That having been said, our joy as Christians is paradoxically related to the waiting that is inherent in this season of Advent.

In our second reading, for instance, we hear Saint James encouraging us to remain patient. He is teaching us that a patient person is a joyful person, because the virtue of patience allows us to endure hardship with tranquility. Difficult circumstances can rob us of control, but they cannot rob us of peace. We patiently wait for God to work out His plans for us in the midst of life’s ups and downs.

When we are spiritually mature, we even discover within us the capacity to appreciate those moments when we have to wait for God to act. The ache in our heart for something to be resolved or come to fruition – that feeling is a reminder of our faith in God whose promises for our ultimate good have yet to be entirely fulfilled. While we wait, we rejoice in the beautiful gift of expectant faith, and with gratitude we cry: “Come, Lord Jesus!”

Father David Schalk

A "Rorate Caeli" Mass is a special, candlelit Mass honoring Our Lady.

With Mary, we will "keep vigil" in the early hours of the morning, eagerly awaiting the coming of the Savior (symbolized by the rising of the sun).

The name "Rorate Caeli" comes from the Mass' entrance chant/antiphon:

"Drop down dew from above, you heavens, and let the clouds rain down the just one; let the earth be opened and bring forth a savior."
