FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This week, the Church in the United States celebrates Catholic Schools Week. For more than 200 years, Catholic education has shaped this nation for the better. We are now blessed to see the formation of Ave Maria Academy, the Catholic school that will open in our parish in the fall. Ave Maria Academy will complement our robust Family Catechesis program. Introducing young people to Christ – creating opportunities for them to encounter His love – this is the Church's highest priority.

Another focus of the Church's energies is vocations. Consider the story in this weekend's Gospel: Simon and Andrew, James and John – these four fishermen left behind their nets to follow Christ. Each one of us has a vocation, which is the way in which we follow Christ with our whole selves. Like those fishermen, we discover the goodness of Christ and dedicate ourselves to sharing His life and love with others. My prayer is that the Holy Spirit inspire more vocations from Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc – more priests, religious sisters, married couples, and single men and women who are committed to generous service in the Church.

Father David Schalk
