FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In the past few weeks, several English-speaking parishioners have approached me with concerns about the recent increase of federal immigration enforcement in Central Ohio. They are primarily thinking of the well-being of our many Spanish-speaking parishioners who have felt ICE's presence in Columbus. Of course, no one is opposed to ICE using its resources to detain violent and dangerous criminals. People have expressed, however, their worry for families disrupted by the seemingly indiscriminate arrests of men and women who are a part of our community.

I have been edified by the guidance of Bishop Earl Fernandes, our own local bishop, when it comes to this hot-button issue. In a December interview with Vatican News, Bishop Fernandes reiterated the fact that our country has a right to control its borders.

The Church in no way encourages anyone to ignore the law or undermine law enforcement. He also stressed the need to remember the dignity of every person, the individual story of each immigrant in our midst, and the gravity of separating families that give strength to the fabric of society.

This Wednesday, we enter the holy season of Lent. In these forty days, we will not find the answer to every question regarding immigration policy. But we can use this season to pray for wisdom for our nation's leaders and for families who are hurting. During Lent, we can fast for greater peace, reconciliation, and understanding among all peoples. And we can give alms to our brothers and sisters who need assurance that they are supported and loved. I believe we will grow humbler and holier through these Lenten pursuits.

Father David Schalk

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY: COUNTING MINISTRY

We are seeking volunteers to serve in the Counting Ministry, a vital role that supports the stewardship and financial integrity of our church. This ministry involves counting and recording weekly offertory collections in a secure, confidential setting. Volunteers serve one Monday per month, for approximately 2-3 hours, with opportunities to substitute as needed. If you are dependable, detail-oriented, and willing to serve behind the scenes, we would be grateful for your help. Training is provided. ### BLESSED CARLO ACUTIS RELIC AT ST. PAUL THE APOSTLE

Our parish is pleased to help spread the word about a special diocesan opportunity. On Monday, February 16, the relic of Blessed Carlo Acutis will be available for veneration at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Westerville. This is a beautiful chance to encounter the witness of a young man whose deep love for the Eucharist continues to inspire the world.

The schedule for the day includes:

- 8:15 a.m. – Votive Mass in honor of St. Carlo
- 9:00 a.m. – Public veneration of the relic and Confessions – lasts throughout the day
- Rosary throughout the day:
  - o 9:00 a.m. – Joyful Mysteries
  - o 11:00 a.m. – Luminous Mysteries
  - o 1:00 p.m. – Sorrowful Mysteries
  - o 5:00 p.m. – Glorious Mysteries
- 3:00 p.m. – Divine Mercy Chaplet
- 7:00 p.m. – Holy Hour of the relic with reflection by Msgr. Figueiredo, concluding with Benediction

We encourage all parishioners to take advantage of this grace-filled moment within our diocese.
