FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Let me begin by suggesting something extremely controversial! In my humble opinion, our experience of the liturgy is more meaningful and reverent when we wear our Sunday best. In general, our culture is very casual. But that makes it all the more significant when a person dresses up for a special occasion. For the rest of Lent and beyond, I invite you to consider how you can display the importance of Sunday worship by what you wear to Mass.

I also invite you to our parish's annual Lenten Penance Service. If you have not been to Confession in a very long time, this is a perfect opportunity for you. A great number of (very kind and gentle) priests will be hearing confessions at Saint Joan of Arc this Monday at 7:00 p.m. Take time to review a Catholic examination of conscience, make a list of your sins, and seek God's mercy in this beautiful sacrament.

Father David Schalk

Lent Penance Service

Join us this Monday, March 9, at the Saint Joan of Arc Campus for a penance service beginning at 7:00 p.m. There will be several priests hearing confessions that evening.

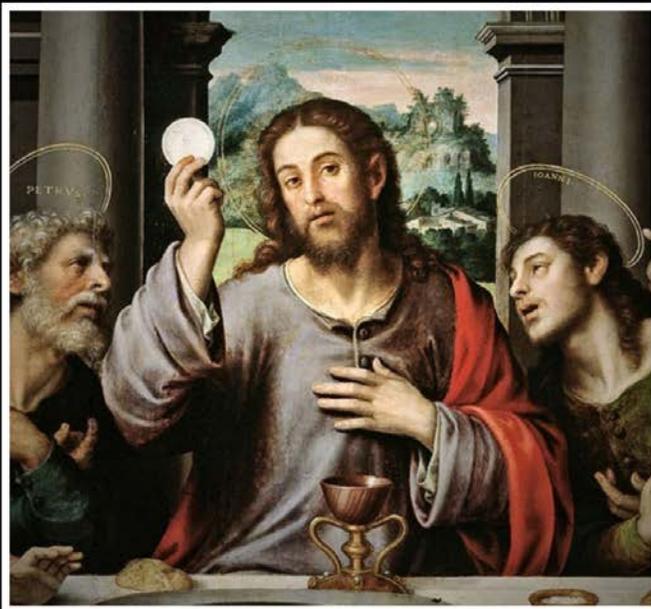

Tips for making a good confession

Before: Ask God for the grace to see your shortcomings and to trust in his mercy. Review a good examination of conscience that helps to identify your sins. Make a list of your sins to use during confession.

During: Be direct. It is typically not necessary to give the context for your sins. Mention your sins and not the sins of others. Know that the priest is there to help you and that God is there to forgive you.

After: Thank God for the gift of reconciliation. Do the penance assigned to you with gratitude for Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Commit to sharing the mercy you received by offering forgiveness and being an instrument of peace.

SPEECH THERAPISTS NEEDED

Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc's English Language Learners program is currently seeking speech therapists to volunteer their expertise in accent reduction and pronunciation. This role involves working with adult students and/or teachers in one-on-one or small group settings developing skills and then working together applying the learned skills. This will give students the confidence they desire to go out and converse with English speakers. If you are interested in using your professional gifts for this ministry, please contact Bev Bucher at ell@spsjoa.org for more details.

MARRIAGE MINISTRY UPDATES

MARCH, 8

ST PETER
ST JOAN OF ARC
Marriage Ministry

DATING YOUR SPOUSE

Many couples stop going on dates after they have children. Due to the chaos of parenthood and family life, it becomes increasingly difficult to carve out time to be alone together. As a result, weeks, months, or even years may pass by without a single date night taking place.

It's important to remember, however, that God called you to be a spouse before He called you to be a parent. Your relationship with your spouse is your first priority! It is the fountain from which a happy family life flows.

In fact, the best thing that you can possibly do for your children is to love your spouse well. Nothing is better for a child than having a mom and dad who love each other. When a husband and wife are united in love, their children can feel it in the depths of their souls.

So, if you love your kids, take your spouse on a date. It's worth the price of a babysitter!

MARRIAGE CHALLENGE:

How well do you know your spouse's "Love Language(s)"? Take a free online "Love Languages" quiz. Then discuss the results with each other.
