FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Happy Mother's Day! We give thanks to God for our mothers and for the ways they have blessed us throughout our lives. We ask the Lord to fill them with His grace and mercy. We also turn our attention to our Heavenly Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. We honor her throughout the month of May, asking that she intercede powerfully for our parish family.

Let me offer a word of thanks to Deacon Andrew Vickery. Deacon Andrew, a seminarian from the Diocese of Birmingham, has been involved in the life of our community for the past two years. It has been a pleasure serving alongside this holy and hardworking young man. He has completed his preparation for the priesthood at the Pontifical College Josephinum and will be ordained in Alabama on Saturday, May 30 – the Feast of Saint Joan of Arc! Please pray for him as he begins his priestly ministry.

And please pray for Father Tomás who will also be beginning a new chapter in his ministry. It was announced last weekend that Father Tomás has been reassigned to Saint Mary Church in German Village. There is a growing Hispanic community in that parish, and the pastor there has very limited Spanish. Father Tomás' linguistic gifts will very much be appreciated! We will celebrate Father Tomás at Saint Joan of Arc on Sunday, May 31, and at Saint Peter on Sunday, June 7.

Father David Schalk

ESSENTIAL SKILLS FOR DEMENTIA CAREGIVERS

Caring for someone who has mild cognitive decline or someone with dementia brings a unique set of challenges and rewards. With the right education and support, you can empower yourself to provide quality care while managing your own well-being. Rose Beeson, RN, PhD, has taught me valuable lessons that I cherish and encourage others to learn. Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc will host her in the Blue Room at Saint Peter's, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

- Monday, May 11: Communicating Effectively – Topics include understanding how dementia and cognitive decline affect a person's ability to communicate, taking a person-centered approach with communication challenge, and improving communication.
- Monday, May 18: Responding to Dementia-Related Behaviors – Topics include how dementia can cause changes in a person's behavior, possible triggers for dementia-related behaviors, and non-medical and medical ways to address behaviors.

MARRIAGE MINISTRY UPDATES

MAY, 10

How is Marriage a Sacrament?

Most Catholics are aware that marriage is a "sacrament," but very few Catholics actually know what that means. A sacrament is a visible sign, instituted by Christ, that God uses to give us his invisible grace.

So, for example: the sacrament of baptism is a visible sign (washing with water) instituted by Christ (see Matthew 28:19-20) that God uses to wash away our sins, adopt us as his sons and daughters, and give us a spiritual participation in the death and resurrection of Jesus (all of which are real but invisible effects of God's grace).

Or, for example, the Eucharist: The Eucharist is a visible sign (bread and wine) instituted by Christ ("Do this in memory of me") that God uses to give us himself and to fill our hearts with his supernatural (and invisible) charity.

Marriage, however, is also a sacrament. It, too, was instituted by Christ (see John 2:1-12, Matthew 19:6, and Ephesians 5). But what is the "visible sign" of the sacrament of marriage? And what is the "invisible grace?"

The visible sign of the sacrament of marriage is the married couple itself. A husband and wife united in Holy Matrimony become a living sign—a living image—of Christ's love for the Church. Through their love for each other, God makes his own love present in the world. In the sacrament of marriage, he gives them the (invisible) grace that they need to love one another as he loves us, and to thereby reveal to the world the love of Christ the Bridegroom for his Bride. Therefore, if you have received the sacrament of marriage, remember that you yourself are the sacrament!

By: Father Joseph

one another out of

MARRIAGE CHALLENGE:

Reflect on how your marriage is (or can be) a visible sign of Christ's love for the Church. What are some ways you can "lay down your life" for your spouse this week?

BONUS:

Thank your spouse for ways that he or she has loved you sacrificially.
