FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Our nation celebrates Father's Day this Sunday. We pray for our fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and all other father figures in our lives. Theirs is a high calling. By their words and actions, our earthly fathers lead their families to the heart of God the Father. Just as we need their fatherly love and example of faith, so they also need our support and prayers. May our fathers be strong spiritual leaders in our homes and in our parish.

In this weekend's second reading, we hear from chapter five of Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans. In this particular passage, Saint Paul speaks of the consequences of Adam's disobedience in Eden. Fortunately, Saint Paul also speaks of Jesus' obedience on the cross, which has unleashed a torrent of love upon us. We read in his Letter to the Romans: "Where sin abounds, grace abounds all the more." That gift of grace cleanses us of sin and gives us the strength to persevere in saying Yes to God's will for our lives.

ST. PETER ST. JOAN OF ARC: A HISTORY PARISH PICNIC

Since the early days of St Peter, the Parish Picnic, under the direction of the Parish Life Committee, has been a long standing tradition. From its humble beginnings at the St. Peter McEwan Center when the parish was young to the picnics that were celebrated at "Murphy's Party Barn" as the parish grew, many parishioners have enjoyed food, fun, and fellowship.

As development took over the party barn space, the parish picnic returned to St. Peter and continued to grow as did our parish. Last year was the inaugural celebration of the Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish Picnic. Throughout its history, the parish picnic has always served as a pillar of Community.
