FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend is our Annual Missionary Appeal, and we are blessed to have Fathers Arul Anthony and Amalraj Roche who represent the Archdiocese of Madurai in India. The Church there is seeking our help in spreading the Good News. Thank you for welcoming our guests from Madurai and for generously supporting their ministry.

Thank you also for supporting our Community Festival (August 20-22). We could not do it without our dedicated Festival committee and the hundreds of volunteers who work so hard to make the Festival an enjoyable event. Your efforts do not go unnoticed.

Speaking of hard work, I want to extend my gratitude to Chris Dixon, our summer seminarian. Chris has blessed our parish, serving on the altar and participating in a wide range of activities. Please pray for Chris as he returns to Rome to continue his studies for the priesthood.

One more very important note: The bishop has granted me a sabbatical. The tentative plan is for me to spend most of the first quarter of 2027 in Belize. I will keep you updated with more details over the next several weeks. Fortunately, we do not need to worry about the parish while I am away – the Holy Spirit will remain in charge.

Father David Schalk
