A Word from Our Pastor

Dear Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parishioners,

An annual impact report gives us an opportunity to reflect. As a parish and as individuals, we look back at the challenges and the joys of the past year to see how God has shaped our lives. With the eyes of faith, we can see the fingerprints of the Holy Spirit everywhere.

I have seen God working through the ministry of our community's parochial vicars. Last year, Father Tomás Carvahal and Father Joseph Rolwing touched many souls by their preaching and spiritual accompaniment. And now we are blessed to have Father Stanislaus John, whose hard work and holiness are inspiring.

I have also been edified by the extraordinary generosity of parishioners who made a pledge to our capital campaign, Building Our Future. We surpassed our financial and participation goals, allowing us to expand our facilities for parish ministries and open Ave Maria Academy. The success of Building Our Future points to the grace of God at work in our church.

In my own spiritual life, I have noticed an increase in my devotion to our patron saints. Saint Peter has become a trusted friend, and the warrior Saint Joan of Arc seems more accessible to me. These two heroic yet human figures continue to lead me to Christ.

To draw people to Jesus is the very reason our parish exists. My prayer is that the members of Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc experience Christ's transformative love through their connection in this vibrant community. As you flip through this report, perhaps you will be encouraged by the ways God is working in our parish and in your own heart.

Sincerely,

Father David Schalk

Father Stanislaus John, SAC

Hello, Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish family!
It is a joy and a blessing to introduce myself to you. I am Father Stanislaus John, SAC, but please feel free to call me Fr. John. I was born and raised in Tamil Nadu, India, and I am a Pallottine priest. Our founder, St. Vincent Pallotti, began our congregation in 1835 with a beautiful conviction: every baptized Christian is called to be an apostle and to bring Christ's love into the world.

My vocation story began as an altar server. I was inspired by the missionary priests serving in my parish, and their dedication and love for people awakened in me a desire to become a priest and missionary. In 2002, I entered the seminary to discern and follow God's call. After studying philosophy, theology, and education, I was ordained a priest on May 20, 2014.

Since then, God has led me through many places and ministries. I served in India as a parochial vicar, teacher, and school administrator. I spent six years in Italy—three years studying at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, followed by three years of pastoral ministry in the Diocese of Termoli, serving as a parochial vicar and pastor. In the Diocese of Columbus, I have served as a hospital chaplain and later as a parochial vicar in Chillicothe. Each place and each person has taught me something and has been part of God's continuing story in my life. Now, with gratitude, I begin a new chapter with you at St. Peter St. Joan of Arc!

A little about me: I enjoy science, especially the wonder of creation, and I love reading philosophical books. I enjoy cricket and football, coffee, popcorn and good food—especially lasagna, steak, and mashed potatoes! I am inspired by St. Thérèse of Lisieux, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St. Pier Giorgio Frassati, whose motto, "Verso l'Alto" - "Toward the Heights", reminds me to keep looking toward Christ and striving for holiness.

My favorite liturgical season is Advent, and one of my favorite hymns is "The Lord Is My Shepherd" - Psalm 23.

I look forward to meeting you, listening to your stories, sharing faith and fellowship, and walking together toward Christ. Please keep me in your prayers, and know that you are always in mine. God bless you all!

Livestream Ministry Leading Youth to Christ

Isaac and Graeme Titus

> I am not a confirmed Catholic yet. I think it is really special to receive a blessing at each Mass, but I look forward to the day when I can be confirmed and receive Jesus.
> GRAEME TITUS

Doing livestreams for my church has helped me understand the Mass better. Since I help with the livestream, I pay closer attention to what is happening during Mass and have learned more about what everything means. I have also learned how to livestream, which is a skill I did not have before.

Another thing that livestream has helped with is meeting wonderful people at my church. Everyone has been kind and welcoming, and I am thankful for the people I have gotten to know. People are so happy to be at church. I have also been praying more, and that has helped me grow in my relationship with God. Taking time to pray has made my faith grow.

I am not a confirmed Catholic yet. I think it is really special to receive a blessing at each Mass, but I look forward to the day when I can be confirmed and receive Jesus. I know that will be a very important time for me. I feel like I have grown closer to God. I am thankful for everything I have learned and for all the people who have helped me along the way.

Helping with the livestream for the 5:00pm Mass at Saint Peter has helped me learn more about my faith and what happens during Mass. By using the cameras around the church, I have learned when the priest stands, when the cantor sings, and where people receive the Body of Christ. Paying attention to all of this has helped me understand the Mass better.

One of the coolest things I have learned is that a miracle happens at every Mass when the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus. Learning about this has helped me see how special Mass really is. I also like helping people who cannot come to church. I think our church is beautiful, and I see it helps people feel good.

Even though I am not confirmed yet, I am thankful that I can help my church while learning more about God. I look forward to my first communion and receiving the other holy sacraments. I want to thank my mom for bringing us to church and helping me understand what it means to be Catholic.

Meet Grace

Grace Morris
High School Youth Minister

Grace is the third oldest of seven children. She went to the University of Saint Francis where she played soccer and graduated in Education with concentration in Special Education. Grace served at Damascus Summer Camp for three summers and moved to Columbus in January 2026. Her favorite quote is “Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure,” from St. Pope John Paul II.

Our Theme for the Year

Verso L'alto

To the Heights

Inspired by Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, “Verso l’alto” means “To the Heights” a call to aim higher: toward Christ, toward holiness, and ultimately toward Heaven. This year, we challenge our teens to rise above the distractions of the world, discover who God created them to be, and grow in a real relationship with Jesus. Like Pier Giorgio, we want them to live boldly, seek holiness, and strive for Heaven.

The Ark's Mission

Lead teens into a deeper relationship with Jesus through prayer, community, and formation.

A few highlights from the last year:

- PINS Night: Welcomed 70+ teens for the annual event.
- Enjoyed a Hocking Hills kayaking trip and a pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation.
- Power & Love Retreat: Joined several other Columbus-area youth groups for a retreat.
- Growth: In the past 9 months, we’ve seen strong growth in our high schoolers, deeper friendships, and greater maturity in their relationship with Jesus.

INTRODUCING

Middle School Youth Ministry

Forming hearts.
Building friendships.
Encountering Christ.

We are excited to develop a middle school ministry at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish. As our Confirmation program expands to younger ages, we are building a vibrant, faith community where students can grow, belong, and encounter Jesus.

Meet Mia

MIA MAGUIRE
Middle School Youth Minister

Mia is from Louisville, Kentucky, and has lived in four states. Inspired by her grandparents' global mission work, she felt called to ministry from a young age. After studying Spanish and Nonprofit Administration at Western Kentucky University, a transformative summer serving with Damascus led her to transfer to Franciscan University, where she earned a degree in Theology.

Mia has remained deeply involved in youth ministry, Damascus Mission, and faith formation. She believes that an encounter with Jesus opens our hearts to conversion, and she is passionate about helping middle school students encounter Christ, grow in friendship, and learn to dwell in Him as He dwells in them.

We Hope to Provide

The Fun is the Invitation
Games, snacks, and fellowship open the door, but encountering Jesus is what transforms lives.

Faith Formation
Help students take ownership of their faith and recognize that Confirmation is only the beginning of their formation.

Exciting Plans Ahead

Kickoff Night: October 20!
Youth Group offically begins with a fun kick off night!

Monthly Greetings
We'll meet once a month on the third Tuesday for games, worship and faith formation.

Path to High School Ministry
Dwell will serve as a bridge into The Ark, where Grace will continue leading and forming them in their faith.

A place for everyone
Now is the time for students to get involved, build community, and discover that they have a place here.

Meet Us: Dwell

"Behold, I will dwell with them."
– Revelation 21:3

Dwell launches monthly for 6th–8th graders, combining fun, fellowship, and faith formation. Inspired by the Ark of the Covenant, the name reflects our desire to help students dwell in the Lord and invite Him to dwell in their hearts.

Citizens of Heaven, Passing Through Earth

Parishioner Testimony: Shawn Castellano

Fr. Joseph has been a true gift to me in my first year as a convert to Catholicism and, as you all have experienced, to our parish community.

Ever since we first met, he's been helping me make more and more sense of our world by expanding my intellectual horizon philosophically and theologically. The Parish Mission was no different.

Throughout the Mission, Fr. Joseph emphasized each of our identities as citizens of Heaven passing through Earth; and each of our callings to usher in the City of God in our lives, our families, and our localities. For myself in our confusing times, there's always temptations to go along with cultural norms that the Spirit in me questions in favor of "protecting myself" (Honor, Power, Wealth, Pleasure). It's scary to let go of control and open ourselves to the ways of God.

However, as Fr. Joseph showed us, this is not a lifelong burden the Church puts on us; but is actually the only path to attain the greatest possible levels of happiness, meaning, peace, and freedom. This in turn helped me appreciate the Eucharist more.

> "There's so much peace in knowing that the Lord is literally in me in the Eucharist."
>
> Shawn Castellano

God does not call for us to pursue this life alone and blindly white-knuckle our way to Him. On the contrary, he came down from Heaven to give himself for us in the Eucharist so that we can be transformed.

When I was Protestant, this was non-existent. There is so much peace in knowing that the Lord is literally in me in the Eucharist. Christ in the Eucharist, helps us break down vice that leads to misery and build virtue that leads to true freedom; discern what is the City of God and the City of Man in our society; and see what and who he's calling us to love and sacrifice for.

The Parish Mission gave us a clear road map to a full life from the intellectual tradition of the Church. I hope to see more events like this at our parish down the road because it not only helps us understand the faith more but it breathes a lot of life into the parish community. Thank you Fr. Joseph and to everyone that made this happen.

~ Shawn Castellano

Testimony about the Parish Mission

Parishioner Testimony: Carmen Valdez

For three days, a group of us from the Hispanic community were blessed to participate in a talk given by Father Tomás Carvajal, during which we reflected deeply on repentance, sin, and, above all, the importance of making a good confession.

One of the topics that helped me the most was recalling the five steps to a good confession: the examination of conscience, repentance for sins, the resolution to amend one's life, the confession of sins to the priest, and the fulfillment of penance.

Although as Catholics we know that the Church invites us to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we often approach it without truly taking the time to live out each of these steps. The talk helped me understand that going to confession should not simply be a matter of fulfilling a sacramental obligation, but rather of encountering God's mercy and allowing Him to transform our hearts.

> Entender que nuestra fe está construida sobre este fundamento, transmitido de generación en generación hasta nuestros días, llenó de sentido y firmeza mi manera de vivir como católico.
> Carmen Valdez

Understanding that our faith is built on this foundation—passed down from generation to generation to the present day—filled my way of living as a Catholic with meaning and strength. It helped me see our Church more clearly and understand more deeply the richness of the faith we have received.

More than just a talk, these three days were an opportunity to pause, look into our hearts, and turn our gaze toward Christ. The true fruit was evident in the people: in their questions, in their reflections, in their desire to draw closer to God once again, and in their commitment to live out our faith with greater awareness.

I am left with one certainty: when we sincerely open our hearts to God, His Word not only teaches us but also transforms us.

The smallest acts of generosity have a big impact

The Jackett children, Clara, Samuel, and Maria, held a lemonade stand in their neighborhood over the summer. They collected donations for their lemonade stand and when their parents, Brian and Sarah, asked them where they wanted to direct the money, they said for the new school, Ave Maria Academy. Their generosity reminds us that each of us – young or old – can make a difference and is called to respond to God's invitation to care for one another.

Catholic Classical Education 101

At Ave Maria Academy, we provide a Catholic classical education for our students to form the whole child—mind, heart, and soul.

What is a Catholic Classical Education?

Catholic classical education is a renewal movement. It immerses students in the 2,000-year-old intellectual tradition of the Church by integrating faith with all subjects—focusing on wisdom, virtue, and the "true, good, and beautiful". Classical education is based on the liberal arts tradition, emphasizing the skills that allow students to think clearly, communicate effectively, and seek truth. Rather than focusing on short-term memorization, our approach develops a lifelong love of learning through rich literature, history, math, science, art, and music—all integrated to show how knowledge connects.

This Pedagogy

- Integrates subjects, knowledge, and faith
- Restores inherent meaning and fosters wonder
- Guides the intellect in thinking and discovering
- Nurtures the moral and sacramental imagination
- Focuses on quality over quantity and teaches how to learn
- Engages students through discussion and virtuous assessment
- Develops intellectual freedom
- Approaches the child as made in the image of God

A Blessed Presence in Our School

We are profoundly grateful for the presence of the Little Servant Sisters of the Immaculate Conception at Ave Maria Academy. Their joyful witness, Marian devotion, and commitment to serving Christ will help shape the heart of our Catholic school. Through their daily example of prayer, humility, kindness, and joyful service, our students will discover that holiness is found in the ordinary moments of life. Their presence helps create a school culture where Christ is at the center and every child is encouraged to know Him, love Him, and serve Him.

Your Yes, His Mission

Parish Mission Trip Testimony: Amelia King

San Ignacio, Belize | Sacred Heart Parish and School | May 16-22 2026

I went to Belize for the first time thinking I would be the one showing Jesus to the people there, but I soon found that they were the ones showing Jesus to me.

For the past two summers, I have had the opportunity to serve the people of San Ignacio, Belize, alongside other members of the parish. During my time there, I encountered in the people a joy and faith like I had never seen before.

My first year, I remember meeting a woman named Sandra during one of our house visits. Sandra was a single mother of nine children, the youngest of whom had Down syndrome. Her house had no running water or electricity, but over and over again she would repeat, “El Señor proveerá”—the Lord will provide.

I left that visit deeply moved by this woman’s seemingly unshakeable faith. How could someone who had so little, and who had so many reasons to worry or complain, believe so firmly that God would provide for her?

The months following our Belize trip were filled with many sufferings for me, but one of the things that kept me going was remembering Sandra’s faith. If she could trust that the Lord would provide for her, I could trust that He would provide for me, too.

I think, however, the most important lesson these past two years in Belize have taught me is that Christ truly dwells in every person we encounter—rich or poor, Black or white, old or young. He is present in the young children who greet you with the joy of the Christ Child; He suffers in the heart of the tired, anxious, struggling mother; and He serves through the work of the missionaries.

Interested in going on mission to Belize?

Annually the parish plans a Mission Trip to Belize to serve the people of San Ignacio, Belize at Sacred Heart Parish. If you would like to learn more or sign up for the 2027 trip, please contact Robin Ruehlen, our Social Services Outreach Coordinator, at (614) 761-0905 ext.315 or rruehlen@spsjoa.org.

In fact, it was almost easier to see Jesus at work in the lives of the people we encountered on the trip than in the faces of my own family or neighbors. Christ gives us the commandment, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. And you shall love your neighbor as yourself.” My time in Belize showed me that I can love and see God in my neighbor, whether that neighbor is from Belize or is a member of my own family.

My experience in Belize over the past two years has left an indelible mark on my life. You truly cannot leave and remain the same. The graces from these trips have extended far beyond what I could ever have imagined, and I cannot thank the Lord enough for the way He has used the people of Belize to draw me ever closer to Him.

2026 Community Festival

Festival Highlights

- Volunteers Engaged: More than 950 parishioners and friends
- Attendees Welcomed: 8,000–9,000 community members
- Sponsorship Support: Generous contributions from local businesses and families enabled expanded festival offerings and strengthened parish ministries.

Community Impact

The 2026 Community Festival was a joyful celebration of faith, fellowship, and service. Over 950 volunteers—representing every corner of our parish—brought the festival to life through their dedication, hospitality, and heartfelt commitment. Their efforts transformed the grounds into a vibrant space where families, neighbors, and new friends could gather in the spirit of unity.

For the first time in 16 years, weather conditions required us to relocate all carnival rides to the Grotto and main church parking lots. This unexpected shift created a shortage of parking spaces, but our Festival Committee responded with remarkable teamwork—quickly developing a plan, adjusting layouts, and coordinating alternative arrangements. While the weather tried to dampen our spirits, the prayers of our parish family kept the rain away during festival hours, allowing the celebration to continue with joy and gratitude. Our expanded ride section remained a standout success, doubling the excitement and creating unforgettable moments for children, teens, and adults. The laughter and energy that filled the air reflected the deep sense of belonging that defines our parish community.

Local vendors, parish ministries, and community partners added richness and connection throughout the festival. We witnessed new friendships forming, families reconnecting, and children discovering the joy of shared experiences. More than an event, the festival strengthened the bonds that make St. Peter St. Joan of Arc a true spiritual home.

Thank You!

We extend our heartfelt appreciation to all volunteers, sponsors, attendees, and supporters. Your commitment, generosity, and joyful participation were essential to the success of the 2026 festival. As we reflect on this year's achievements, we are eager to continue strengthening our community and preparing an even more impactful celebration for next year.

A Message from the Festival Chair

"This year's festival was truly extraordinary. Seeing our parish come together—volunteers giving generously of their time, families celebrating side by side, and local businesses offering remarkable support—was deeply inspiring. We didn't simply host an event; we strengthened the bonds that make our parish family so special. I am profoundly proud of what we accomplished together and look forward with excitement to all that lies ahead."

A reflection from a St. Teresa's Outreach Committee member

Kathy McGinnis

When St. Peter's and St. Joan of Arc were merged into one parish with two campuses, I was asked to represent St. Peter's on the Saint Teresa's Outreach (STO) Committee. I had served on the Community Services Committee at St. Peter's for several years and with the goal of acting as one parish, I was introduced to the volunteer group on the St. Joan campus that had a similar purpose.

When St. Peter's and St. Joan of Arc were merged into one parish with two campuses, I was asked to represent St. Peter's on the Saint Teresa's Outreach (STO) Committee. I had served on the Community Services Committee at St. Peter's for several years and with the goal of acting as one parish, I was introduced to the volunteer group on the St. Joan campus that had a similar purpose.

In 2023, as the merger was progressing, the STO Committee worked to understand ministries and initiatives occurring at each campus and determine how to maximize our impact on the community needs we were addressing.

What I learned is the extensive array of outreach efforts that have so many volunteers and parish support! There are several that address food insecurity in our community; food drives that benefit Help My Neighbor (across from St. Peter's), People in Need (Delaware County) and Our Lady of Guadalupe Center (Hispanic food pantry in West Columbus). There are volunteers doing Bread Runs, getting donated items from groceries and Panera that are taken to food banks or used to assist our homeless initiatives.

On the grounds of St. Joan campus is Anthony's Garden, a volunteer gardening effort that grows and harvests fresh herbs and produce and allows food banks to receive fresh items they don't always have.

Sandwich making can be done by families and brought to masses at both campuses for distribution at Holy Family food kitchen for inner city needy.

And the Open Shelter, downtown Columbus, receives the generosity of those who assemble 100 bagged lunches three times a month for the marginally housed and homeless.

There are so many people who receive our help! HOST (Heart of St. Teresa) is a street ministry that feeds homeless souls who love getting something hot to eat – burritos! And a hug from the volunteers who treat them with respect, dignity and love. One special story is a young man who received a holiday gift bag that had "St. Joan's" on the package. The gentleman told a volunteer that he attended St. Joan's as a child – so those in need were "our babies" at some point.

We also serve seniors in our community through Sweaters for Seniors. This initiative originated at St. Peter's and is now done at both campuses each winter. We collect sweaters and other items of warmth to give to LifeCare Alliance for their clients in need.

I continue to be amazed by the generosity of our parishioners. Through an extra collection each month, our parish provides financial support to these and many other ministries that are part of STO.

While we have entities that receive routine support, like St. Vincent de Paul, one of my favorite opportunities is our special one-time grants process. STO committee members can nominate organizations for addressing special needs.For example, we helped repair a delivery van for a food bank. And other times, we are introduced to a need we don't meet through our existing ministries.I have been able to secure a small grant for CHOICES, a domestic violence shelter in Columbus, and for St. Francis Evangelization Center, a food bank and clothing center in rural Vinton County, one of the neediest areas of our Columbus Diocese.

If you have donated a gift for the Christmas Giving Tree or brought school supplies to brighten a child's return to school, or dropped a $20 in the extra collection, you are part of the STO ministry. Look for the monthly bulletin summaries that give our parishioners an idea of what their support has accomplished.

Legacy Society

"We love because he first loved us."
-- 1 John 4:19

What does the Legacy Society do?

Educates and assist parishioners about legacy planning for the long-term benefit of the parish.

Hosted the "Last Wishes Seminar" on October 25, 2025 (30+ attendees). Topics included: Catholic cemeteries, funeral home planning, funeral liturgy planning led by Father Schalk, end of life issues, and estate planning.

Will host panel-style seminar in November 2026 on the benefits of charitable giving. The goal is to provided expert advise and insight regarding taxes, financial planning, and charitable giving to support the parish, endowment, and other nonprofit organizations.

Annual Pilgrimage
A Legacy of Faith & Service

On June 16, members of the SPSJOA Legacy Society, St. Teresa Outreach, parish staff, and guests joined Father Schalk for a pilgrimage to St. Margaret of Cortona Parish and the Our Lady of Guadalupe Center.

The day included Mass, fellowship, and a tour of the Center, where participants learned about Catholic Social Services' work serving families in need. The pilgrimage also celebrated generosity in action: St. Teresa Outreach awarded $13,000 in grants to the Our Lady of Guadalupe Center and St. Francis Outreach Center, while Vacation Bible School and the pilgrims donated much-needed goods.

Organized by the Legacy Society, the pilgrimage offered an opportunity to thank members for their commitment to the future of our parish while experiencing the broader impact of Catholic generosity throughout our Diocese.

A Testament of Faithful Stewardship

In January 2000, our family relocated from Clintonville to Worthington Hills and joined St. Peter Parish. Our boys were enrolled in RCIA, my wife, Tracy, taught in the program, and our boys received the sacraments at St. Peter. We have been happy to call St. Peter and, later, St. Peter St. Joan of Arc our spiritual home for many years.

In 2015, I was approached by Ron Rowland and asked to join the St. Peter Planned Giving Committee, which helps educate parishioners about opportunities to support the parish and its endowment through legacy gifts and encourages such gifts. Following the canonical merger of St. Peter and St. Joan of Arc, this ministry evolved into the St. Peter St. Joan of Arc Legacy Society.

My involvement naturally led Tracy and me to consider what we could do to support the ministries of our parish beyond our earthly lives. We believe that the parish will have a need for continuing financial support from us in providing for the spiritual needs of those who fill our pews after we are gone.

As we reviewed our retirement and financial plans, we identified a whole life insurance policy we had funded since our boys were young. It had once been an important part of providing for our family, but with our sons grown and our retirement needs otherwise provided for, the policy was no longer essential to our financial plan. This seemed to be the perfect asset to gift to the parish endowment. The Catholic Foundation of Columbus provided the guidance to us to execute this donation. The gift even provided us with some tax benefits.

This is just one example of a legacy gift to our parish endowment that can help our parishioners after we are no longer contributing our time, talent and treasure weekly, monthly or yearly to our spiritual family.

Have you remembered the parish in your estate planning?

Who oversees the work of the Society?

The Legacy Society is coordinated by an executive committee comprised of Joseph Chornyak Jr., John Konfala, Dan Lacey, and Ron Rowland and assisted by Stephanie Grieser, Director of Stewardship. Stephanie can be contacted for additional information at sgrieser@spsjoa.org.

Intentional Stewardship

"Each one should give as much as he has decided on his own initiative, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

-- 2 Corinthians 9:7

Stewardship is More than Giving.

It is how we live as disciples of Christ.

Everything we have—our lives, our families, our faith, our time, our abilities, our resources, and the opportunities God places before us—is a gift from Him.

Stewardship is how we respond to those gifts. We recognize that what we have is not ours alone, but something God has entrusted to us. We are called to use what He has given us in ways that bring Him glory, serve others, and help build His Church.

Stewardship is not simply about giving money or volunteering — is a way of life and our grateful response to God for the gifts He has given us. A steward chooses to live with gratitude, generosity, and purpose—and asks, *"How is God calling me to use the gifts He has given me?"

A Steward's Life is A Response

RECEIVE
Recognize that all we have is received from God.

RECEIVE
Glorify God for His blessings and discern His call.

SHARE
Offer our time, talent, and treasure to the Church and others.

Stewardship transforms the question from "What do I have to give?" to "How is God inviting me to use what He has entrusted to me?"

The Three Dimensions of Stewardship

TIME
Giving our lives to God

Our time is one of God's greatest gifts to us. Stewardship of Time includes prayer, worship, rest, family, relationships, and making space for God.

How might God be inviting me to give my time?

- Make prayer a daily habit
- Patricipate in Sunday or daily Mass
- Sign up for a Holy Hour of Adoration
- Make time to learn and grow in faith

TALENT
Using our gifts to serve others

Every person's gifts strengthen the Body of Christ. Stewardship of Talent means discerning how we share our skills, experiences, and interests to support each other.

How might God be inviting me to share my gifts?

- Serve in a parish ministry
- Help coordinate parish events
- Teach or share your faith
- Support the parish's administrative needs

TREASURE
Giving generously from what God has entrusted to us

Our financial resources are received and earned with God's grace. Stewardship of Treasure means prayerfully considering how we use our money to build the Kingdom of God.

How might God be inviting me to grow in generosity?

- Practice intentional budgeting
- Make or renew your Offertory giving
- Consider increasing your contribution over time
- Give with gratitude, not obligation

EVERYTHING WE HAVE IS A BLESSING FROM GOD.

Where is God calling You?

Every disciple has something to give.

This year, we invite every parishioner and every household to prayerfully discern how God may be calling you to grow in discipleship through your time and talent.

- Maybe you are ready to serve in a ministry.
- Maybe you have a gift that you have never considered sharing.
- Maybe you are being called to step back into parish life.
- Maybe God is simply inviting you to begin by saying yes to one small thing.

Discover your next "Yes."
